Online Leadership Skills

Course Aims

In this online leadership skills training course, we aim to provide those that attend with a range of practical tools and ideas to lead their teams effectively.

By the end of the course, delegates will:
- Know the difference between leadership and management and when to apply each function
- Understand the wide range of skills they will need to possess to be an effective leader and manager
- Know a range of leadership approaches and the situations each should be used in
- Be able to get the team to a high performing standard in a shorter period as possible

Course Content

- What is leadership?
- The differences between Leadership and Management
- The key skills and characteristics of effective leaders and managers
- When to lead and when to manage
- Identifying a range of leadership approaches and when each should be used
- What can a leader do to get the best from the team
- How to develop yourself as a leader and develop the skills of others

Course Benefits

Delegates will be able to motivate the team to perform to a high standard, getting the balance right between quality and productivity. The leader can engage the team in the vision, build trust and competence and therefore spend time further developing the skills of the team, and not constantly firefighting to solve problems within the team.
