

Time Management

Course Aims

To raise awareness of where our time goes and to provide the skills necessary to manage time more effectively. This course provides an understanding of the link between behaviour and poor time management, and also provides the skills necessary to delegate effectively and be more assertive towards those who constantly demand our time.

By the end of the session, attendees will:

- Understand the way we think about time and how it affects the way we manage ourselves
- Know how to jumpstart procrastination and become more self-motivated to do tasks
- Describe a range of techniques associated with managing ourselves around time and when each should be used
- Be able to identify personal time wasters and how to remove them from their everyday work
- Be able to prioritise tasks and workload to ensure they are working on the right things
- Be confident in managing other people expectations and saying no when required
- Describe a range of tools and models that will support the way we plan our days and how these can be used to influence others.
- Know how to apply the techniques in a range of different settings i.e. working from home or in the office

Course Content

- Tools and techniques to manage time more effectively
- Changing the way you think about time
- Other people's behaviour and how this affects the time you have
- How to say no
- Delegation and assertiveness – an introduction

Course Benefits

Being able to manage your time effectively reduces stress and allows us to focus more on the things that are important to us. This course will provide a range of techniques that when applied, will reduce stress, increase confidence and allow you to deliver to schedule.

Session Breakdown

Why Manage Time

- What is Time Management and the benefits of being able to manage time more effectively
- How good are you at managing your time now?

Where does time go?

- Understand what and who takes up your time
- Identifying time wasters and how to eliminate them

Change the way we think

- Understanding how our own beliefs and behaviours impact on our ability to manage time
- Taking a different view of the tasks that we dislike like doing to ensure they do get done

Procrastination

- What is procrastination and why do we do it?
- What can we do to jump start procrastination

Dealing with Over Commitment

- Planning more effectively to make more time available
- Having the confidence to say no
- How being more assertive will help

Prioritisation

- Identifying which tasks you should be working on
- Using techniques to prioritise tasks
- Managing others expectations

Delivery Options

In House

We can deliver this course at your business anywhere in the UK, Ireland or the rest of Europe.

Contact us for a quote to have this course delivered in-house.

Open Course

We deliver this course as an open course in towns and cities across the UK and Ireland.

Each space costs £299 / €299 per person.

Course Information

This is a one day training event that Revolution Learning and Development deliver as an open course or as an in-house course.

When we deliver this course in house, we can make this more bespoke to your needs.

The cost of our open courses includes the learning materials, refreshments during the day and lunch.

To discuss your individual needs, email hello@revolutionlearning.com or call us. If you're in the UK it's 03333 444575 and if you're in the ROI it's 015549779

Booking terms and conditions are available on our website.

